Daily Proverb—"The best remedy against an ill man is much ground-between both."

The fly in the ointment is a lot of motorists is that gas and tires also aren't sold on the installment plan.

Possibly Babe Danols figures that, marrying the world's champion sprinter, the two of them will be able to break the Hollywood record for reaching the end of the matrimonial journey.

It began to look as though the story that Mr. Hynicka was going to surrender control of the Republican organization in Hamilton county was founded upon hope rather than promise.

Mrs. Ferguson, who failed to resign as promised, says she is going into the gubernatorial run-off primary "With all her heart." We assume she "checked" her conscience before entering.

A Washington item says a great array of problems is ahead when congress meets in December. With ninety-six senators and 435 members of the house, there's no disputing a statement like that.

"A great chain of high-class theaters to produce motion pictures exclusively," a Chicago item tells us, is being considered. The crying need of the hour on the part of patrons is a great chain of high-class motion pictures.

The Rev. Dr. Paul Wengel, of New York City, complains that Christians think only of dress and material things from Monday till Saturday, which is not fair to God. Not the right kind, doctor; not the right kind.

The Cincinnati Enquirer remarks that the world "will never get so dry that the boat-rocker won't be able to get in his deadly work during the summer." Unless we do rank injustice to the mentality of the boat-rocker, he doesn't need hose to nullify the working of such mental equipment as he may possess.

While whiskey may not be a remedy for snakebite, as now held, we have heard where it has been administered in small quantities very successfully in cases where people have been threatened with snakes.

The King of Jugo-Slavia has had his salary raised to the equivalent of $1,000,000. If he saves his money he may, in time, be able to stack up financially with us hard-working spreaders of joy and sunshine in paragraphs and other holders of great earned wealth.

Sometimes it seems to us that the paragraphs aren't exactly exerting themselves to boost the battling average of the joy of living for us true aristocrats of the land. Here's one of them pointing out that a motorist, as a result of the introduction of the four-wheel brake, can now stop his car on top of the redoubtable instead of running over him as formerly.

Why Parole Boards, Anyway?

Police Commissioner McLaughlin, of New York City, not only told the Rotary club of Brooklyn that one-third of the prisoners who have been paroled in New York state since 1924 have been arrested again for crimes similar to those for which they were in prison, but when his statement was questioned by the parole board he also presented figures to show that it was within the facts.

"While it is increasingly difficult to get the right type of young men on the police force," he said, "because the work nowadays is harder than formerly and the pay is not as adequate as might be desired, the real reason why we feel that we are not making as much progress with the $35,000,000 annually spent in New York for the apprehension of criminals is our decidedly defective parole system."

"Recent figures show that thirty-three and one-third per cent. of prisoners arrested since 1924 have been rearrested charged with crimes similar to or identical with those for which they were originally convicted. This is especially true in the cases of robberies, burglaries, assaults, grand larceny and offenses of that type."

After paying out $35,000,000 a year for police protection, year after year, and having the work of their police nullified by their parole board, it's a wonder the people of New York City do not begin to ask themselves: "Why a parole board, anyway?"

Why would it not be the part of wisdom, in recognition of the crime record of recent years, so to amend the laws that provision would be made whereby the work of parole boards could be suspended while there was a wave of crime beyond the ordinary? This would serve a double purpose. It would keep a horde of criminals from being let loose upon the law-abiding citizenship and it would work to prevent the development of crime. It is because of the belief—a very well-founded one, usually—that they will have but a short time to serve in the event of apprehension and conviction that the criminal world is augmented by hundreds and thousands annually.

Isn't it about time to consider first the law-abiding, and later show interest in the welfare of the criminally-trended?

Friday, the Thirteenth.

Today is Friday, the 13th, regarded the world over as the most unlucky combination possible to the calendar.

When or where the superstition that Friday is unlucky arose has never been definitely determined, and there seems to be like uncertainty regarding the origin of the thirteen superstition. Yet there can be no question that both exist, and that there is special ill-luck to be apprehended when the two come in combination.

It has been claimed that the thirteen superstition sprang from the Last Supper, but there is much going to show that it dated far back beyond the Christian era. In ancient times the year was reckoned by lunar months, of which there are thirteen to the year. Later the thirteenth month was dropped, the number being thus reduced to twelve, which was considered lucky, because there are twelve signs of the zodiac. Since that time, it is claimed, any thirteenth thing has been considered unlucky and doomed to suffer a fate similar to that of the dropped month. Such is held to be the origin of the superstition which, it is claimed, has endured for thousands of years.

The most of us scorn the idea that we are superstitious, but just the same the most of us are; if not regarding Friday or thirteen, then in some other respect. But there are evidences at hand that many of us have the Friday superstition and the thirteen superstition as well. Many lines of business feel their effect, especially transportation companies and other lines catering to the traveling public. Many refuse to start upon a journey on Friday. Fewer marriages are solemnized on Friday than any other day of the week. Seafarers, sailors and travelers alike, dislike sailing on Friday. To defy this superstition, a British ship-builder is said to have named a ship Friday, and sailed her for the first time upon that day. The following Friday she went down in a storm. His defiance served but to add strength to the superstition. All transportation companies note a falling-off in patronage on the 13th. Few people care to occupy rooms in hotels or state rooms on boats numbered thirteen. The result has been that in hotels and on boats No. 13 is usually dropped; passed over altogether or called by some jocular name. Some farmers believe a new moon on Friday presages bad weather for crops, and throughout Europe a child born on Friday is deemed unlucky. Somebody has pointed out that three presidents have died on Friday and that Lincoln was assassinated on a Friday night. Yet they did not at the same time bring out the fact that four presidents were born on Friday, nor go into the detailing of almost countless important events marking that day.

Columbus discovered America on Friday and it was on Friday that Henry Hudson discovered the Delaware river. The Pilgrims sailed in the Speedwell from Southampton on Friday and the Mayflower reached what is now Provincetown on the same day of the week. Shakespeare and Napoleon were born on Friday and Queen Victoria was married on that day. Charles Dickens held that his most successful books were begun and ended on Friday, and he considered it a lucky day.

Mail Carriers, coming to the thirteen superstition, like thirteen. Four of his most successful works were published on the 13th of the month. Many notables, in fact, have counted it their lucky number and Louis XIII, of France, not only adopted a title containing thirteen letters, but also selected the 13th of the month for the undertaking of any important matter.

And here's the odd phase of the superstition regarding the combination of Friday and the 13th. Illness has yet to record any great disaster or calamity that signalled the double hoodoo, and going back for years nothing of special importance in the way of ill-luck will be found to have developed upon the combination of the two.

And yet the Friday, the 13th superstition lives on.

We see that another million-dollar Florida realty corporation has gone into the hands of a receiver, and we guess that a lot of good friends and neighbors who have made fortunes down there during the past year or two are to be congratulated over recognizing the psychological time for getting out from under.

If we get "Ma" Ferguson currently, she is in the race for governor of Texas to save the Lone Star state from the Ku Klux Klan. If we grasp the view of the voters expressed at the initial primary down there, the conception proposed by "Ma" and Jim is another of those remedies which may be classed as worse than the disease.

The News, of that municipality, speaks of Chicago as a "sound" city. It probably has to mind the noise made by its police department when announcing that a thorough clean-up is to be inaugurated.

A big screen producing company, having made over 200 tests, is still seeking "a great actress of whom nothing derogatory has ever been published" to take the part of Mary Magdalene in a great super-production, "The King of Kings." It's evident that it's going outside of Hollywood in its quest. The first condition guarantees that.

Apprecos of the bumper apple crop reported, we hope our good agricultural friends will pause for a moment, while putting away their winter supply of cider, and see if they can recall at least one bit of legislation enacted by congress wholly in the interest of the farmer.

A big hole was blown in the block of a Cleveland man who had employed non-union painters, a few nights since, and 100 cars were literally cut to ribbons and all the electric machines smashed in another structure occupied by a concern which had been having labor troubles. We may have heard of worse ways of adjusting labor troubles, but not much. The cause of labor was never advanced by violence.

"COME ON IN, JOHN, THE ONLY SWORDFISH YOU NEED FEAR ARE IN THE ATLANTIC."

Weak Babies Can Be Made Sturdy.

BY ROYAL S. COPELAND, M.D.
 United States Senator from New York.
 Former Commissioner of Health, New York City.

Nothing in the world is more important than the care of an infant. Little babies differ tremendously. Some of them seem so well and strong from the time they first see the world that they hardly need special attention.

On the other hand, some of these little ones are so frail and delicate that they must be looked after almost every minute.

The best evidence of the well-being of a baby is its increase in weight. There should be a pair of scales in every house where there is a newborn infant. At regular intervals the weights should be taken and recorded.

The muscles and skin of a healthy infant have a certain firmness. When this sort of a baby cries you know he means business. He lets out a yell that can be heard in the next block.

It is quite different with an undeveloped and delicate infant. There is no firmness to the body of this child. The skin is tender and soft. When the child cries there is just a feeble moaning or whimpering or whining.

It is necessary to have the muscles of the child good and strong. The act of nursing requires muscular exertion. The muscles of the face and tongue must be strong enough to draw the milk from the mother's breast.

On many occasions I have told you how much I value the clinical thermometer, as I view it. I do not think the mother should rush for this instrument every time the baby cries or seems to stir. It is a fact, however, that the thermometer gives a very accurate idea of the reflex of the infant. An undernourished and undeveloped child will have a temperature considerably below normal.

A baby can not thrive unless kept warm. This does not mean that in hot weather it is necessary to swaddle and pad and stuff the child with heavy clothing. A perfectly normal baby can be put out on a sheet in the sunshine entirely directed of clothing. There is no better exercise for a baby than to let him sprawl all like unencumbered with the windings, which would make him miserable if they were left in place.

But this run and let alone with the delicate child. Such an infant must have covers enough to maintain the temperature.

The feeding of a delicate infant is a matter of the greatest importance. On account of the weakness of the muscles and the general frailty he can not draw nourishment from the breast. Sometimes it is necessary to use a medicine dropper to put the milk into the mouth. You can see that such an infant requires the most particular care in order that it may survive at all.

The interesting thing about babies such as I have here described is that they may develop into robust adults. The frailty of the child at birth is no evidence at all what it may be when it grows up. I have in mind now a great six-foot, stalwart young man who was a little, fat, pudgy, whining infant. You never would dream to see him today that he was ever anything but a baby, crying, kicking, normal baby.

 READER, Q.—Is it dangerous to take gas when having a tooth extracted?
 A.—No, unless the heart is very bad.

READER, Q.—What causes my forehead to perspire and my face to feel flushed?
 A.—This may be due to poor circulation. Build up the general health and your circulation should improve.

MRS. P. D. Q.—I have been told that I have a leakage of the heart? Is there a cure? What are the symptoms?
 A.—Depends upon the extent of the trouble. Have your doctor advise you. Irregular beating would be the most pronounced symptom.—Copyright, 1932.

Poems That Live.

IF LONELINESS BE MINE.

If loneliness be mine—
 And loneliness, I know, is every man's—
 Let me be lonely in a quiet place,
 Among the trees and grass,
 Or by the sea,
 Or on a distant hill,
 Or desert waste.

O God, let me be lonely, if you will
 But not in towns,
 There tongues are strange to me;
 And when I speak what thou art in my heart
 Folk do not know the meanings of my words.

I would be lonely in a quiet place,
 Not with my three-and-twenty busy friends—
 May they forgive me—
 Here is the loneliness of talk and laughter
 That covers hidden fears.
 This better of light and shadows is a thing
 More lonely than an aching solitude;
 More lonely than a longing and a love
 That seeks and does not find,
 Or having found
 Lies down to sleep a half a night awa.

Let me be lonely where the silent night
 Follows the silent day,
 Silence, I understand,
 It is my language.
 I understand the shadows of the leaves,
 And what they write upon a moonlit road
 Is plain to me.

The ebbing of the tide
 Tells an old tale in rhythm on the sand
 That I read well.
 The sound of desert winds
 Tells upon a hill
 I understand.

I would be lonely in a quiet place
 Wherein remembrance dwells
 Of simple things—
 Pebbles and pineapples,
 Dragonflies and daisies,
 A glow-worm and the sun,
 The hand of us beloved on my heart;
 And your still voice
 Speaking in gardens at the cool of day.

If loneliness be mine—
 And every man's—
 Let me be lonely in the night
 Alone.

What Do You Want To Know? Ask Haskin.

Be right. Here is a great information service that is free to every one. Write your question plainly and enclose two cents in stamps for return postage. Address: The Marion Star Information Bureau, Frederic J. Haskin, Director, Washington, D. C.

Q. What is the percentage of actual gold paid out by the government to other forms of money?
 V. B. M.

A. The percentage of gold issued by the government to other mediums of exchange such as checks, bonds, issues, currency, etc., is extremely small. A rough estimate will be less than one per cent. The percentage of gold used in business would be even smaller than that.

Q. When was Hermann Melville's "Moby Dick" first published? F. J. M.

A. "Moby Dick" was first published in 1851.

Q. Does fuzed quartz reflect the rays of the sun?
 G. R.

A. It does not. It permits the rays of the sun to pass through, even permitting the ultra-violet rays which do not pass through common glass. For that reason the fuzed quartz tubes are used in a ultra-violet ray apparatus.

Q. How is glue made that will stick like that on postage stamps? E. L. J.

A. The gum used by the United States government is probably one of the best that could be used. It will stick to almost any surface. Its composition is said to be the following: gum arabic, one part; starch, one part; sugar, four parts; water, sufficient to give the desired consistency. The gum arabic is first dissolved.

The Way of the World.

BY GROVE PATTERSON.

We call this the age of speed. Back in 1873, however, a speed record was set up that is still good. In exactly three minutes and fifty-five seconds from the time a little patch of wheat was rippling in the afternoon breeze, the same wheat was baked in griddle cakes ready to serve. In exactly four minutes and thirty-seven seconds some more wheat from the same patch was served in hot biscuits. In that time the wheat had been cut, threshed, carted forty rods to a mill, ground into flour and baked. There is a speed record more interesting than one furnished by a mechanical contraption which will circle a mile track in three-quarters of a minute.

Roger Baldwin, director of the American Civil Liberties union, makes a discovery. He discovers that while speech in America is free, listeners are few. Not an anarchist or any other kind of an "ist" in jail for talking, as far as Mr. Baldwin learns.

Prosperity, cheap automobiles, radio sets and homes owned by the folks who live in them have been too much for the corner calamity. Old General Prosperity has been too much for the "reds" in America.

It ought to be a long time before men who work in the building trades do any complaining about wages. The National Labor Bulletin, figuring up building costs in 1932, finds that labor represents more than sixty per cent. of that cost. Wages ought to be high—not higher.

Lyell Rader, twenty-four years old, and his sister, seventeen years old, turn down a chance to go into their well-to-do father's business and live easily. They join the Salvation army instead.

"The life laid out for me was too easy," says the boy. "I decided I could experience more joy in life with less ease."

He may be wise or unwise. One can't say at this stage. But he is a smart young man in one respect. He gives voice to a profound truth when he says that he can get more joy out of life when he has less ease. Hard work, carrying with it the sense of service, is still the prime happiness-bringer in all human experience.

A lot of fathers, trying to bring up their sons and daughters, will wonder what goes on in the minds and hearts of two well-to-do young people to make them give up a so-called life of pleasure and join the Salvation army. Nobody quite knows. No grown-up can quite analyze the mind and heart of youth. When youth has gone from us most of the remembrance of youth has gone from us also. We do not remember very distinctly the things and thoughts that animated us when youngsters. The point of view of youth can not be recaptured. And so, all the grown-ups can do is to give the best advice they know, and stand by to catch them when they fall.

Twenty Years Ago.

This day was Monday.
 A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. A. F. McNeal, of south Vine street.
 The European hotel was closed by Constable James K. Redd out of Justice H. C. Thompson's court.

George T. Everett reported that he had to kill a mare owned by him as one of its hoofs had been knocked off by lightning.

A free street fair was in progress on north Prospect street near the Archbold property.

In digging a grave in the Pleasant Hill cemetery next to that of Mrs. Milligan it was discovered that the remains of Mrs. Milligan, buried seventeen years before, had become petrified and appeared just as when interred. Marion was still flourishing on buying the local water plant.

U. S. Merkel decided to build a theater on west Center street—the Orpheum.

Miss Maud Thompson entertained at her home on east Center street in honor of Miss Mabel Martin, of Canonsburg, Pennsylvania.

The Marion Baseball company purchased a franchise and team in the O-P league. The first home game was to be played August 28.

The John Evans Lime and Stone company was making extensive improvements at its plant.

Mayor Louis Scherff got a shock when he viewed some of the pictures at the "Penny Arcade" on north Prospect street. He ordered them discontinued.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Wiant and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. DeLong left for vacations on the Great Lakes.

A marriage license was issued to Miss Cora R. Abel and Mr. Mediam D. Lehman.

Today's Events.

Friday, August 12, 1932.
 If you are unlucky today—just remember, it's Friday, the 13th.

Twenty years ago today the big news was the plot of negro soldiers of the United States army at Brownsville, Texas, in which several persons were killed.
 Dr. Felix Adler, eminent educator and founder of the Society for Ethical Culture, is in line for congratulations today on his seventy-fifth birthday anniversary.

Brigadier General Henry L. Abbot, United States army, retired, of Cambridge, Massachusetts, who reached the age of ninety-five years today, is the oldest living graduate of West Point.

Two transatlantic flights are to feature the second international aviation meeting which got under way today at Dubendorf, Switzerland.

The Natural Inference.

Soviet industrial authorities are alleged to have profited over $1,000,000 on a galosh factory. It seems fair to suspect that there were some galoshes there was some slush.—Chicago News.

In some water, the sugar added, then the starch, after which the mixture is boiled for a few minutes in order to dissolve the starch, after which it is thinned down to the desired consistency.

Q. Has the word fall meaning autumn ever been spelled fall? L. D. W.

A. It has never been spelled fall. The Middle English form was fall, and the Anglo-Saxon, fyll.

Q. What is the difference between bakelite and amber? N. N.

A. Bakelite is a manufactured synthetic product. Amber is the resin from prehistoric trees and is much more expensive than bakelite.

Q. We wish to put a bowling alley under a theater. What will help to make it sound proof? J. G.

A. The bureau of standards says that the application of hair felt to the ceiling of the basement, covering joists as well as floor boards, should materially reduce the transmission of sound through the floor. This material can be obtained commercially in thickness of one-half inch and one inch.

Q. What kinds of fish and birds are found in Georgia? P. M. M.

New York Day by Day.

BY O. O. MINTIRE.

New York, Aug. 12.—Thoughts were swirling: Those who sit alone in public squares. Whatever became of Kugelberg? Never saw any old trap drummer. A new one—colored shirt with a different colored collar. An old clothes man near the Winter Garden stage door. Business means nothing to him. Eureka! A sightseeing bus actually starts. Croquet sets for sale all over town. The old game is coming back. Signs: "We specialize in habits." Most New Yorkers do. Fire Chief Kenlon. A smoke-eater for forty years. A woman came out of a telephone booth shouting: "Where's my child?" In the next breath, "traded."

The dumb Marx brother. Those fellows with turned down Panama hats. And famous names. What is the origin of the word "Landscape"? Probably born when Times square was a pasture. Drug stores might find something more interesting than crutches for their windows.

The bright buy of the Follies—Gena Buck. Who addresses everybody, including his boss, with "Lo, kid." And kids every day along the "Big Run." More Schnauzer dogs. Fashionable with stage folk. The "Fashionable Fifties" are popularizing the Cocker Spaniel.

Straw hats are beginning to droop. George Olsen, the orchestra leader. Ladies' lips rouged purple. What an idea that is! And some very monogrammed stockings. Still men were made in George Washington's day. And lace cuffs. Yoo-hoo!

If the present generation will quit galumphing galoshes and Oxford bags we ought to be satisfied. The Forty-Sixers are still common, loaded with packages—typical New Yorkers. The old men who spend leisure hours in the public library.

A traffic tower cop drops an envelope to a lady. A touch of romance. Or probably, "Have bean soup for dinner." Those fast jewelry shops that never seem to have customers. The cheery hunchback newle in front of the Grand Central.

It would appear people are growing holy-oly about publicity. In the old days it was an actor's ambition to have a cigar named for him. Now that nature has made him a star today Jarrett, the opera star, sued to restrain a cigar firm from paying her this dubious compliment. And a relative of General Ambrose Burnside seeks legal redress for the general's whiskers being immortalized on soap wrappers. A chorus beauty asks $100,000 bail for a beauty specialist showing her lovely features. Ten suits of this sort have been filed in the past year. All would shrink no doubt from the implication that the suits bring more publicity than the original ideas. And, of course, we wouldn't think of suggesting it.

Prince Albert was not averse to having a horrendous coat named for him. Nor the heirs of Lord Chesterfield a cigarette, or of Robert Burns, a cigar. In our feeble judgment we see no offense in honoring a well made product with an illustrious name. Just recently we heard of a new oil town in the West that was named for us and there is no resentment. It is called Sap Head.

There is the making of a De Maupassant story in an incident that took place in one of these imitation beach resorts the other day. A lady with a $50,000 pearl necklace went with a friend to select an imitation string of pearls. She was fascinated with the display. "Why," she declared, "they look as real as mine," and she unclasped hers and threw them into the pile—then mixed them up. "You can not tell one from the other," she cooed. And then it was discovered the clasps were alike. A pearl expert was called in to swing the genuine strand. The lady left the place, white-faced, and will probably always wonder if she really got hers back. And in the meantime—well, there are all sorts of plots in the idea.—Copyright, 1932.

Today's Worst Story.

BY WILL ROGERS

The worst story I heard today was one of the best stories I heard. I can't tell you the bird's name, for then we would have to make the story shorter. A very well and hard-to-remember Scotchman had a son whose only ambition was to see London. The young man, in order to get the money to go there manufactured the tale that he had read of a man in London that could teach a dog to talk for fifty pounds, and that what a wonderful thing for his father if he had the distinction of possessing the only talking dog in Scotland. So the old man thought that was not a bad investment, so he gave the boy fifty pounds and the dog started him to London.

Well, the boy had a great time in London, but the money was running short. Then he had a bright idea, so he wrote his father: "Bobby"—that was the dog's name, named after, of course, Bobby Burns—"Bobby now speaks English fluently. But he is so good a pupil and so bright that the professor wants to teach him French. The fee is of course fifty pounds more. The professor claims there is only one other dog in the world that can speak two languages, so thinks it's a great chance. Wire fifty at once."

The Scotchman felt. The boy went through that in a couple of days, through an appropriation, and thought, "Italian." But the old Scotchman wouldn't fall for Italian. So the boy had to bring the mongrel home. He didn't know what to do. Then an idea hit him. He shot the dog. The father met him at the station and said: "Where is Bobby?"

So the boy had to tell him the following: "Father, as we neared old Scotland I was thinking of you and mother, and how good it was to get home, and Bobby up and says: 'By you know what your father is doing now? He is in

THE MOTORISTS HAVE LONG POINT OF VIEW

Club Secretary Decries
Impatience and Selfishness of Autoists

an automobile in some of its aspects brought almost the climate in the "humanity to man" in the case of Mrs. D. C. Gallagher, secretary of the Marion Auto Club.

attitude of motorists towards one another is one of the most important things on the highway today, Mrs.
Gallagher said.
With a great many new cars and drivers on the streets this season, she said that I never have seen so much of a particularly unhappy attitude.
Blowing of horns that usually accompanies the calling of a motorist into a catastrophe had happened.

It is all so unnecessary and, in nine of 10 cases, it is positively brutal in thoughtlessness. The motorist, man common, who has stalled an engine, silly is a novice and everyone can understand what his nervous condition when he first drove.

He knows that his helpless feeling owing the stalling of an engine in the way of traffic is the mental state followed when intolerant, impatient, selfish drivers behind began to blow their feelings by the din that auto horns can produce.
It seems to me that motorists would well to offer the advantage of his own knowledge in helping the novice and of laughing at him.

Ottawa, Aug. 13—Clinton Parker,

Parker, a ball player, 26 years of age automobile. He wanted to make the

He hoisted the entire distance in makminutes to greet each rider.

BURGLARS JUST MOVE IN

Brooklyn, Aug. 12—Burglars recently moved into the home of Mr. and Mrs.

on their trip. The burglars had been oc-

TWO HUGE APPLES GROW ON 10-MONTH-OLD TREE

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Larkin, 462 Mary-St. Have Un-usual Success

Marion would soon become famous as a fruit-raising in place of short-raising community, had everyone such success with fruit-trees as Mr. and Mrs.

Sylvester Larkin, 462 Mary st., seem to have. They are the proud owners of a miniature apple tree, but three feet high, that has already distinguished itself with two huge apples.

The fruit, which is of the yellow transparent variety, hangs in the topmost branches of the tree, and is of a pale yellow hue. The apples have the amazing measurement of 10 inches in circumference while the stalk of the tree is of about the thickness of the average thumb.

The little tree, which is but 10 months old, was set out last November in a pot, and is now growing in a pot, but it was grafted on a quince root, but outside of that is thoroughly apple. This spring it was abloom with the fragrant apple blossom, but suffered many losses of its flowers with the spring winds.

Most unique in this town of nature, reminding one of the little girl "dressed up" in mother's clothes. One admits the apple a remarkable sight on so small a support but still wonders how they taste?

OHIO WOMAN RETURNS TO MISSIONARY FIELD

Defiance, Aug. 13.—The lure of doing missionary work among the fisher folk of St. Anthony, the most northern point of Newfoundland, has caused Miss Rosalia Lawrence to resign her post as secretary to A. G. Clark, president of Defiance College. She will leave Aug. 15.

Soon after her graduation from Defiance College in 1924 Miss Lawrence went to Halifax, Porto Rico, where she did missionary work for a year. She was stricken with malaria there, and

PLANNING NEW YORK TO MEXICO AIR MAIL ROUTE

Campaign for Establishment of New Service Taken Up in Mexico

New York, Aug. 13.—As the result of the recent establishment of the Dallas-Chicago air mail service, which brings both these cities within twelve hours of each other, a campaign has been launched in this city to bring about the creation of a Mexico City-New York mail route.

The campaign for the establishment of this new route has been undertaken by the Association for the Advancement of Commerce and Industry in Mexico, with headquarters in this city and has the cooperation of the Mexican government.

At the present time all mail from Mexico City destined to this city takes from right to ten days and with the inauguration of the contemplated air mail service between these two points, would make both cities accessible within 36 hours.

A questionnaire now is being prepared by the Association for distribution among the leading business houses and banks of New York, Chicago and Boston in an effort to secure all possible information and statistical data pertaining to the amount of mail now being sent from these cities daily and destined to points in the Mexican Republic.

The matter of the establishment of this route already has been brought to the attention of the Postmaster General at Washington as the result of an investigation recently made by the postmaster of Houston, Texas, who spent several weeks in Mexico City discussing the proposed route with Senator Carlos Huila, postmaster general of Mexico.

MINNEAPOLIS MAN WINS PUBLIC LINKS GOLF TOURNAMENT

Just a few more weeks ago, though it seems and—the, it is a fact that over at Harding High School on the campus, in the school's golf course, a public links golf tournament was held.

HOW will Harding High make out on the golf links this year?

Will Ohio State make the grade in the Western Conference? What about the Buckeye and the Ohio Conference?

Will it fill the shoes of Red Grange as football's outstanding player?

How strong a team will Notre Dame be able to put into the field this year?

There are just a few of the questions which run amuck in the minds of football fans preceding the grid season.

During the next few weeks sport critics, who profess to be always "in the know," will be answering these questions which only time can solve.

Here's Chance to Pick All-Marion Recreation Team

WITH the recreation league baseball season closing after next week's games many fans are speculating as to what players in Marion's five city leagues are worthy of the honor of being included on a mythical All-Marion recreation baseball team.

In view of many requests made during the last several weeks fans and players are going to have the opportunity of selecting an All-Marion first, second and third team through a contest which will be conducted by the sports department of The Marion Star.

The contest begins today and will close next Friday night.

Fans and players are asked to select nine players for the nine positions on a team which they consider would be the best in the city.

At the close of the contest the players receiving the largest number of votes for the various positions will be put on the first team.

In making their selections fans are asked to consider playing ability, sportsmanship and other qualities which a good baseball player must possess.

Selections should be mailed in or delivered personally to the sports editor of The Marion Star as soon as possible.

The Star recently sponsored a recreation player popularity contest and the response from Marion fans and players was more than expected.

Approximately 600 persons voting in the contest.

The present contest should prove more popular than the first. Every player in Marion's five recreation leagues is eligible to be selected and to vote in the contest.

Who is the best pitcher in Marion catcher first baseman etc. Let us hear from you soon in your selections early.

TEXAS LEAGUER SLAMS OUT FIVE HOMERS IN GAME

By JACK DONAHUE

White Sulphur Springs, N.Y., Aug. 13.—Far removed from the turmoil which surrounded him in New York, Jack Dempsey prepared for his first day in camp this morning with a run over the surrounding roads.

He probably will box four or five rounds this afternoon and go through the usual ritual of bag punching, shadow boxing and work with the sand bag.

He seemed to me in excellent condition although slightly nervous. This was not surprising in view of the trouble that beset him in New York in the quest for his elusive license and because of the challenge hurled at him by Teddy Mullins.

The champion dismissed the latter with a word.

I'm used to being heckled, was all he would say.

Dempsey had no intention of returning to New York on Monday for the next meeting of the license committee unless announced summoned by that body or Ted Rickard.

Midways Strong
The Midways have been going great guns since re-gaining several weeks ago and are expected to give the Rail Service outfit a tough battle.

Either Carpenter or Gause will be on the mound for the Midways while Longshore will probably be on the ball for the service crowd.

The game is scheduled to get away at 2:30 o'clock, with competent officials in charge.

Osgoods Retain One-Game Advantage in Industrial Loop by Win Over Lumbermen

By JACK DONAHUE

THE Osgoods retained their hold on first place in the Industrial League last night by defeating the Marion County Lumbermen 7 to 0 in a nine inning game played at the latter's diamonds.

The game was featured by a real hurling duel between Naylor of the Lumberjacks and Toomire of the Osgoods. Naylor pitched in the ninth inning and ended the overtime game in favor of the leaders.

Shoreline Win
Behind the effective pitching of Ferricks, the Marion Steam Shovelers continued to remain one game behind the leaders by defeating Fairfield 7 to 0 at Lincoln Park. Ferricks was in great form last night and had the opposing players at his mercy throughout the game. Ferricks and Little featured the hitting for the two teams in the game.

With Isler pitching in top form the Railway Service outfit came through to a 12 to 0 win over the Polk's Steels at the Steam Shovel grounds. The winners pounded Shirk to the fore three well and scored almost at will. Sager, Fritz and Gledits were leading hitters.

Slip Mills Cop
In a heavy hitting game at the Slip Mills grounds the Hubbers lost to the Slip Mills by the score of 25 to 0. Lill pitched for the winners.

Jeffer, Rowland, Higford, Huntman and the Haldahl brothers featured the slugging for the two teams in the game.

FOURNIER PUTS RUTH TO SHAME

Dodger First Baseman Slams Out Three Homers in One Day

New York Aug. 13.—For one day at least one Jacques Fournier, veteran first baseman and Chinese wrestler of the Brooklyn Dodgers, backed Ruth. Ruth batted first and all off the baseball map.

This is the simple expedient of slugging out three home runs in one game against the St. Louis Cardinals.

Fournier's afternoon placed him on the same broad shelf with Ty Cobb, Babe Ruth and George Kelly in the matter of running the outfielders ragged in a given afternoon.

Many a man has noble aims—but it is his hits that count.

THE Midway Lunches and the Railway Service teams will meet in a postponed game in the Industrial League Saturday afternoon at the Shovel grounds.

If the latter team succeeds in defeating the Midways Saturday a tie will result.

MAY END CAREER WITH WINNER

The current baseball season may mark the passing from the big time of Joe Bush, one of the ball and bullet pitchers. But if it does Joe Bush will step out of baseball and the ranks of pennant winners at the same time. Which is as it should be. He spent most of his time anticipating slices of melon from the fall classics. Bullet Joe, now with the Pittsburgh Pirates, who seem headed for the National League flag again, is serving with his sixth major league team. It is his first venture in National League ball, but he wore the uniform of the Athletics, Red Sox, Yankees, Browns and Senators in the American League—and won fame with most of them. He has collected his end in five world's series.

Removal of Fred Clarke Sought by Pirate Players

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 13.—Confronted with a situation unique in the history of the Pittsburgh baseball club, Manager Bill McKechnie was expected to take action today to restore harmony broken on the road trip just completed when three veteran players asked that Fred Clarke, assistant manager and vice president, be kept off the players bench. Max Carey, captain, Bob Adams, veteran pitcher and Carson Bigbee, utility outfielder who presented McKechnie with a petition for Clarke's removal from the club, held refused to comment. McKechnie requested that Clarke again don a uniform. Clarke's reply was that he would remain off the bench until proper disciplinary action had been taken against the instigators by McKechnie.

TEXAS LEAGUE MAY GIVE MANY STARS TO MAJORS

DALLAS, Tex., Aug. 13.—The Texas league has numerous stars who should graduate to the majors this year. Of course, Willis Hudlin, of the Waco club, goes to Cleveland in a deal already completed. But Moose Wober, the center of the Dallas club, Frank Watt, tried out by Detroit this spring and returned to San Antonio. Grady Adkins, at Shreveport, a pitcher, is a star and Spike Hunter, a Dallas rookie, who has already, Walter Johnson, inasmuch as he has speed to burn, are boys with real futures. They have drawn the long hunters in this section and will unquestionably be considered when the big sales start.

McKechnie described the situation as one of the most distressing in his baseball career. The players' reason for desiring Clarke's absence from the bench remained a secret. Annie was willing to discuss it.

Cincy Reds Cop Odd Game of Series With Quakers; Indians Blank White Sox

Jakie May Has Bad Start, but Redlegs Pull Through to 9 to 2 Win Over Phillies; Miller Humiliates Chicago Club by Handing Them 5 to 0 Defeat

AFTER getting away to a usual hot start in the first inning, little Jakie May came out of the trance and roped the Phillies during the remainder of the game while the Redlegs went to work and managed to score 9 runs. The third players winning the all game of a five game series by the count of 9 to 2.

From the start it looked as if Jakie would not last long. The Phillies came out of the box with a sacrifice in the first frame for their two runs, but Jakie straightened up after that and had easy going the rest of the way.

And it Redlegs, continuing their terrific hitting of the previous day, put out the contented Wayland Dean for a run. Dean may have had the last pitch of the Reds at the start of the season, but yesterday he had nothing. Deacon, who is covering the third sack for the Reds, led the team in slugging, securing a home run and three singles in five trips to the plate.

With Walter Miller supplying defense and Tris Speaker the offense, the Indians walked over the White Sox at Cleveland yesterday in the final game of the season by count of 11 to 0.

There was no leveling on the nerves such as preceding games have produced. The Yellie simply grabbed a lead in the first inning.

TOOLS WIN OVER ORDERS, 11 TO 2

La Masters Hurler Winner in Steam Shovel League Game

and steadily added to it. Meanwhile young Miller was showing real courage in the pitcher's box while the Sox faced but one or more hits in almost every inning. They couldn't get into the youthful shut-out when a scoring hit was needed.

HOLD IN PINCH

The two teams wound up their 1926 argument with the White Sox winning the division, 15 games to nine. And there were few tears in the eyes of Speaker as he watched the Chicago outfit file out of the park for the last time. They were

TILDEN, JOHNSTON CLASH IN TOURNEY

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—The annual series of east west tennis matches will be held Friday and Saturday at Forest Hills. The feature event of the tourney will be the match between William T. Tilden and William Johnston which will be staged Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Friday's matches include singles titles between Chaplin and Ogden, Richards and Chandler and a doubles match between Tilden and Chaplin against Holman and Ogden.

the most unprofitable investment on the Indian schedule.

Miller was in trouble in every inning of the nine except the top. The manner in which he extracted himself was the real feature of the game.

Tilden falling ranks lost to Wabe T. Ington 5 to 2, getting only three hits off George Murray, a Yankee catcher. The Yankee now have lost four straight and the Senators have won four straight and the Huguenot lead Clarke led by eight games.

Connie Mack's hopefuls closed in on the Indians by smacking the Red Sox twice 5 to 1, and 5 to 0. Rhinny and Hommel each turning in a five hit performance. Rhinny got five hits.

Detroit lost to the Browns 7 to 2, and flopped back into the second division.

Walter S. Bodley, Former Marion Boy, Writes of His Experiences in U. S. Navy

Makes Reference in Communication to Arthur Williams, Another Marion Youth, Who Is Serving Aboard Destroyer Edsall; Tells of Visits in Orient

Walter S. Bodley, a former Marion boy who is a machinist aboard the U. S. S. Black Hawk, is the writer of an interesting letter received here today. Mr. Bodley speaks of Marion as "one of the most prominent cities of Ohio" especially complimenting the city on its new amusement park and the elevated Vernon Heights addition. Mr. Bodley speaks of "a buddy of mine," a Marion boy, Arthur Williams, who is aboard the destroyer Edsall.

Mr. Bodley continues with an interesting account of his sailor's life. "I shipped in the Navy at Great Lakes, Ill., and completed two months training in December, 1923. During my training at the Lakes I took examinations which permitted me to enter the Machinist Mate School at Hampton Roads. In February, 1924, I entered a course of instruction in the school and graduated in October of the same year.

"November, 1924, I reported at the Receiving Ship at New York City, for further transfer to the U. S. Battle Fleet in Pacific waters. In company with 63 other enlisted men I went aboard the U. S. S. Flamingo enroute to San Francisco. We were transferred to the U. S. S. Tennessee one of the modern super-dreadnaughts of the U. S. Navy. In January, 1925, the Tennessee, a rebel ship as he is known to all sailors, is the fastest ship I have ever been on. April 10th the Battle Fleet steamed out of Newport Bay where it had been stationed for some time, for the attack on Oahu, the island on which the beautiful city of Honolulu is situated. After 14 days of various maneuvers and fleet formations we arrived in the vicinity of Hawaii.

"The attack on the island began at about 11 p. m. April 28, and at about 1:30 a. m. April 29, Oahu was sunk. I was assigned to the Machine Shop, the repair department of the Black Hawk, numbering about 100 men. This force operates a complete foundry. Mr. Bodley continues to describe the wonderful ship, blacksmith, cooper, carpenter and machine shops. "The Black Hawk is capable of overhauling three destroyers at a time.

"In the spring and summer the Black Hawk operates between Manila and Cebu, visiting a number of interesting cities. Mr. Bodley gave short descriptions of those which impressed him most. Hong Kong, China, one of the most beautiful cities in China, is located upon a very mountainous island.

"November, 1924, I reported at the Receiving Ship at New York City, for further transfer to the U. S. Battle Fleet in Pacific waters. In company with 63 other enlisted men I went aboard the U. S. S. Flamingo enroute to San Francisco. We were transferred to the U. S. S. Tennessee one of the modern super-dreadnaughts of the U. S. Navy. In January, 1925, the Tennessee, a rebel ship as he is known to all sailors, is the fastest ship I have ever been on. April 10th the Battle Fleet steamed out of Newport Bay where it had been stationed for some time, for the attack on Oahu, the island on which the beautiful city of Honolulu is situated. After 14 days of

of which the peak is 1920 feet above sea level. The British built a railway to the peak, which is considered one of the engineering marvels of the world.

"At Shanghai we made a three weeks stop. Shanghai is the shipping point of the Orient and is really China proper. There one may see China as she was a few centuries ago. There are many beautiful temples and old gardens.

U. S. TO TRAIN OFFICERS FOR IRISH FREE STATE

Dublin, Aug. 13—It is officially announced here that the United States War Department has granted permission for six officers of the Irish Free State Army to attend some of the United States military training schools to take courses of instruction in American military methods.

Major General Hugh MacNeill,
Assistant Chief of Staff of the Free State Army, will therefore leave in the near future for the United States in order to make full arrangements for the reception of himself and the five other officers.

He will be closely followed by the other five, who have been especially chosen by General Headquarters for the courses. Some of the officers, it is understood, will go to one of the United States military schools for a special course in gunnery, and the remainder to West Point for the study of tactics and American methods of infantry training.

CHICAGO OPERA FIGHTS TALENT "BOOTLEGGING"

Campaign Launched Against Persons Who Advertise Pseudo Connection with Co.

Chicago, Aug. 13—Bootleggers of opera have become the target of a
"house cleaning" campaign launched by the Chicago Civic Opera Company.
It has been announced by Herbert M.
Johnson, business manager of the company.

Formulated in purpose as a defense measure to "protect a fifteen-year investment of $20,000,000 in the reputation of the company," the campaign will be directed against those individuals or organizations who advertise some pseudo connection with the company, defrauding the music lovers throughout the country by mediocre talent masquerading as "prima donnas or tenors of the Chicago opera."

Bona fide members of the opera company cannot afford, Johnson pointed out, to countenance the engagements arranged by irresponsible managers for these pretenses.

Keep Close Check

A close check will be kept on former chorus men and ballerinas who, outside of Chicago, blossom out as coloraturas and "leading tenors," and in the case of every booking brought to the attention of the company, information will be supplied the promoters of the engagement, disclosing the participant's connection, if any, with the Chicago Opera Company.

"The majority of offenders," Johnson said, "have had identification with the Chicago opera in some way or other, usually singing 'bills' or as choristers, and have been suspended for some reason or other."

Many, however, never had any connection whatever with the institution.
Investigation has disclosed that in most cases irresponsible managers of the camp-follower class, rather than the singers themselves, are to blame.

Last Winter, two companies, advertising as members of their casts most of the leading personnel of the Chicago company, were found, while the real ensemble was on a tour in a far different locality. Such organizations will draw first fire from the committee organized to handle the "house cleaning."

HALL RELATIVES ARRAIGNED ON MURDER CHARGE

Brother and Cousin of slain
Pastor's Widow Scheduled to Face Court Today

Pomerville, N. J., Aug. 17.—Following their arrest, charged with the dual Hall-Mills slayings, the strange crab apple tree murder mystery, Henry De la B. Carpenter, wealthy broker, and Willie Stevens will be formally arraigned today.

The Wall at broker, a cousin of Mrs. Frances Stevens Hall, widow of the Rev. Edward W. Hall, murdered clergyman, and her dull-witted brother spent the night in the Pomerville County Jail. Hall was denied by County Judge Frank L. Cleary, acting as committing magistrate.

The state is expected to reveal its "see in the hole" at today's hearing. Mrs. Jane Gibson, the "pig woman," who declares she saw Dr. Hall and his choir singer "sing mate," Mrs. Eleanor Mills, shot to death on the old Phillips farm on the outskirts of New Brunswick will be among the accusers who will confront the two men.

Another Arrest Due Today
Another arrest is expected today, that of the man whom Mrs. Gibson said stood 75 feet away while the murders were perpetrated. The authorities will seek to have this man identify the victim and Mrs. Mills. Stevens, a colored man, who is being held in the Pomerville County Jail, although he was plainly shaken by his experience of spending a night behind prison bars, Carpenter, a "man of affairs," had regained his cool composure.

When state troopers under command of Captain John J. Lamb called at the luxurious Hall mansion in New Brunswick to arrest Willie Stevens, Mrs. Hall lost the firm composure that has amazed officials for the four years that have elapsed since the murders.

Mrs. Hall shuddered and fell into a faint. She was revived by friends and servants. She was calm and self-possessed when placed under arrest after being awakened from sleep two weeks ago. The arrest of her brother, whom she has always treated as a child because of his mental infirmities, was a terrifying blow to the wealthy widow.

"I don't see why you have to take him out in this downpour of rain," she said to the troopers.

"What do you want to do with him?" she asked when troopers entered the Hall home.

When told he was under arrest, he blurted:

"My God, I knew it would come to this."

He looked from one trooper to another with a dull, expressionless stare, blinking his large eyes mechanically as Captain Lamb read the warrant aloud which charged him with first degree murder.

Willie Stevens refused to make a statement to the authorities, but Carpenter made a statement to Inspector Underwood in which he denied in most emphatic terms all knowledge of the crime. He said that he had a "per-sonal affair" with an apparently light-footed man and would prove it. He sought at his incoherence and feeble-minded manner, Henry Carpenter is a member of the New York firm of McGraw & Co., and is a member of the New York Stock Exchange. He has lived in New Brunswick all his life and is prominent in the local social set.

PAINTERS HURT IN FALL

Columbus, Aug. 13.—Alex McKinnis, 41, and Robert Simpson, 29, painters were in White Cross Hospital today suffering serious injuries to their backs and limbs. They fell 15 feet with a scaffold while working on the architectural building at the state fairgrounds.

HALTS FIRE'S SPREAD

Columbus, Aug. 13.—Joe Russell, colored, was a hero in the eyes of friends and neighbors today. When the fuel tank of an oil stove exploded last night, he carried the blazing stove into the yard, preventing a spread of the flames.

REPAIR CHURCH DAMAGE

Columbus, Aug. 13.—Repairs were started today on the bell tower of the King at M. E. Church, which was slightly damaged by the only stroke of lightning in Thursday's storm.

It's merciless!

It doesn't stun...doesn't stupefy
It doesn't put 'em to sleep. It kills them—every fly, every mosquito, every roach.

Not 1 escapes when you use
BLACK FLAG—deadliest of insect-killers.

They can't escape—BLACK FLAG kills in the surest way ever discovered. Bugs breathe it and die. They strangle—every last one of them. Why? Because BLACK FLAG contains a secret, vegetable ingredient which is absolutely fatal to bugs—but absolutely harmless to humans and animals.

BLACK FLAG is sudden death to every kind of bug that home is heir to. It kills every flea, bed-bug, ant, roach and moth that gets in. Keeps others from coming in. Rids a place of these pests. Give this master insect-killer a trial. Buy the form you like best—liquid or powder. At drug, grocery, hardware and department stores. Powder is 15c up. Powder Gun, 10c. MILLIONS COME TO IRON WORKER

John Cooper and his family

Kenneth, 13, a week a floor lamp and a three inch set to an inheritance of $2,000,000, the heritage of one of the most aristocratic families of the south—all in one day.

That is the fortune of John Cooper, and of course his wife and four children of this city.

Cooper has just received word from his attorney in Wilmington, Del. that he is bequeathed the old Bradford estate left to him by his grandmother, a blue blood of Virginia.

Cooper was the favorite grandchild and as a result is richer by $2,000,000 in cash and safe bonds and 10,000 acres of rich farming land.

Cooper's retirement from the lunch hall and the steel beam.

From an upstairs room in a grocery store Cooper and his family plan an immediate removal to a 40 room mansion in marble and stone in the heart of the Shenandoah valley.

Cooper is planning a 14 room house near his own in shelter Mr. and Mrs. Harry F.
